FARMVILLE.

Interest deepens with us as to railroad rumors when it is given out that a Philadelphia syndicate has gotten possession of the Tidewater and Tidewater & Western, and the prophecy that most concerns us is that the latter will be converted into a broad gauge and so furnish the Tidewater an entrance into Richmond. Any change in the condition of the Tidewater & Western as at present existing would be to our betterment, as it now simply takes from us and brings back nothing, or but little in return. The strange part about this rumor, however, is that the Standard Oil should be willing to sell out the Tidewater venture at all. Millionaire movements are often mysterious

An insurance agent, who struck Farmville recently, says he found a local agent on each corner and without unpacking his grip moved on. And it is true that their "name is legin" here, and some of the most enterprising and progressive young men of the town are engaged in the business who seem to be doing well. There is no branch of human enterprise of more general and essential importance. I am told that the Astors, of New York, are rich enough to carry their own insurance, but there are few Astors in the world. The average business man is unwise who doesn't carry all the insurance, life and fire, that he can.

If it was as dangerous to kiss babies as it is to kiss the kissing bug, our politicians would be in extremis. In most of the Presidential post-offices that I happen to know the post-master is a figurehead, and a non-worker, but with us he is as busy as any employer in the office and always on duty.

Dr. White has the largest garden in town and Mrs. White enjoys walking over it in the early morning hour. She complains, herself, that in these days of scarcity of labor more than two blades of grass are to be found in it where only one was found in the good old days "'fore the wah." Still it is a productive garden spot and a genuine comfort and luxury.

Prof. Jones, of the Normal faculty, who is in the charge of the Summer Normal, is greatly pleased at the attendance and the enthusiasm of teachers and scholars, and is already projecting greater things for next summer. "When a man is in earnest and knows what he is about, his work is half done." This gentleman knows what he is about and is in dead earnest.

I was in one of our livery stables the other day at feeding time and was impressed with the manner of feeding, and thought that our farmers could learn a useful lesson from them. They give a horse enough to eat and no more. Their troughs are not allowed to be crowded with food. The first thing a farmer does when he enters his stall in the morning is to clean out the troughs. In the livery stable the horses do just that. This is the better and more economical way.

What's wrong with the vagrant law that it isn't reformed? A friend told me that he was in a Virginia town recently, and though the population was only 3,800 as many as 50 real vagrants were counted in a walk of a few squares. All laws should be repealed that are not enforced, and the law of vagrancy is not the only one.

In the death of Mrs. W. T. Clark home has lost a model wife and mother, the community a lady of gentle graces and modest worth and the church a consistent and useful member. She leaves a husband and two small children in the new home on earth, and a mother, 7 brother and sister in the old.

The Citizens Bank has opened its doors and is already recognized as a factor in our business circles. Banks are more and more business necessities. We can't get on without them and just how many are necessary for Farmville I don't pretend to know. A few years ago the Planters occupied the entire field, and the authorities no doubt thought that there was no need for another, but the First National came and made a splendid record from the beginning and to-day is one of the strong financial institutions of the State. There is room as I believe for the Citizens and I presidet for it a good degree of success. Capt. E. Scott Martin, the president, though a young man has already won an enviable reputation as a business man. Mr. Serpell, the vice-president, though but recently come to us, has been exhibiting marvellous enterprise since being with us, while Mr. F. W. Hubbard, the cashier, is a Farmville trained man of affairs who will measure well up to the duties of his new and responsible position.

Hampden-Sidney will soon have railroad connections, as we now hope and believe, and in the meantime an automobile will be on the road between the two places.

The Council, at its last meeting, considered the question of a drinking fountain on our Main Street for man and beast, and it will no doubt be soon in operation. So the old town will be selling whiskey at one place on her Main Street and giving away water at another. But the two articles will not be dispensed at the same time unless there is watered liquor on the market just as there is watered stock.

I believe that Sunday is as well observed in Farmville as in most towns of like size, though we do have hot Sunday dinners and the Sunday papers are largely read.

Dr. Richard M. Smith, who announced that he would preach each Sunday afternoon at our Opera House during the summer, has withdrawn the notice. With Sunday School and two services in their respective churches, our church going people are satisfied not to go to another The fact is there is such a thing as spiritual dissipation. One of our hymns gives this good advice, "Take time to be holy," that means private study and meditation as well as public worship.

What a tribute to the Christian religion, the secular papers are paying week by week. The Sunday School lesson with comments appears in them as regularly as in the the religious papers, and a majority of the big dailies have a Sunday sermon in the editorial columns of the Sunday issue. There is a soul want in man that material things wont satisfy. "There is an infinite in him which, with all his cunning, he cannot bury under the finite.

Mrs. Moore and children, of Tennessee, are visiting her mother, Mrs. E. M. Venable.

It is rumored that Mr. W. P. Richardson and family may move to Baltimore. I suppose for well nigh a century some member of the family has been engaged in active business in Farmville.

Old "Wash" horse which was driven by the late Governor McKinney, is still doing good service and looks "fat and fine." He must be bordering on to 30.

Take the Postmaster's Word for it.

Mr. F. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cherryvale, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is standard here in its line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it."

While scientists are discussing the important question "What shall we eat?" the majority of us will continue stowing away just what the cook sees fit to provide.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

OLD BUCKINGHAM.

THE GRAND OLD COUNTY PHOTOGRAPHED.

Many Interesting Reports Made of Her People.

Announcement.

To the Voters of Buckingham:

After being requested by many of our Democratic friends in Buckingham County, we now announce ourselves as the Independent candidates for the office of Sheriff of Buckingham County. We appreciate the kindness of our Republican friends in endorsing our candidacy and they have our thanks, but we want it distinctly understood that we are Independent candidates for this office and have been all the time, and have been endorsed by our Republican friends. Knowing the duties of this office we feel that we can manage the affairs of the office with due credit to ourselves. Thanking you for your continuation expressed heretofore and bespeaking your further consideration, we are, Yours faithfully,

C. D. McCRAW
P. A. GRIGG.

Buckingham.

Miss Mary Florence Sprouce died of double pneumonia at the home of her mother last week. She was a daughter of the late Wesley Sprouce, who was so long and so well known in Buckingham.

Mr. Louis D. Jones Sr. attended Circuit Court last week and his friends are glad to see him looking so well.

Capt. Scott and Capt. White, the opposing candidates, attended court also. Mr. White is thought by some to resemble the late B. R. Eldridge in personal appearance.

This paper will be delivered in plenty time for you to read that the 27th and not the 26th is primary day.

It is mighty nigh August and June apples are just now ripe and no watermelons are smiling on the vines; and I haven't seen a corn field in bloom, nor yet a ripe tomato except some that came from the South. Some folks were planting tobacco last week, it may not be too late but you know how the frosts do some times.

Mr. and Mrs. Wingfield Brown, of Philipsburg, Montana, say that there was snow on the ground 3 inches deep when they started to Virginia on the 27th of June.

While I am writing the thermometer registers 89° in the shade.

The case of Jennie J. Jones vs. The Buckingham Slate Company was decided adversely to the plaintiff in the Circuit Court, a jury of seven was empanelled to try this case, and it was taken to Arizona to view the quarry where the damage was claimed to have been done by the defendant company.

T. C. Bigger, J. J. Wooldridge, N. C. Catlett, N. F. Conner, J. A. Pankey and A. M. Marks (white); and Dashwood Jones and Henry Sadler (colored) were improperly omitted from the list of eligible voters by Treasurer of Buckingham County and the Clerk was ordered and directed to certify these names at the bottom of the printed list of voters to be used by the Judges in the coming election.

Mrs. M. B. Anderson, Admx. of R. M. Anderson, deceased was required to give a new bond as such admx. in the penalty of $10,000 at this term of the Court, but was allowed until the first day of the next term of Court to give said new bond.

The Court decided that the Buckingham Bank was erroneously assessed with taxes and county levies on their stock, and that said stock was assessed at too great a value, which was caused by the method in which the last published statement of the financial condition of said Bank was made up. This Bank was exonerated from the payment of the sum of $77.35 of the aggregate of said taxes so assessed against them and they pay the sum of $12.67 in full of said taxes.

Mr. M. A. Cox was appointed sealer of weights and measures for Buckingham County.

Manteo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Horsley and sons, Gelmo and Francis, visited the Hill City last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wingfield Brown and little daughters, Mary and Margurgt spent last week at Fountain Ridge.

We are glad to note an improvement in Mrs. Sue C. Gipson after spending about 6 months in the hospital in Lynchburg.

Mr. Charles Cunningham, of Clifton Forge, is visiting his brother, G. W. Cunningham.

Our popular and efficient R. F. D. carrier, R. H. Patteson, was on the sick list last week.

Dr. T. H. Lacy filled his appointment at Grace and Memorial on Sunday. We are glad to have him back, as he has been attending the Sunday School convention in Rome, and traveling in "The Mother Country." The members of the church at Grace have made many improvements on the inside as a surprise to the Doctor on his return home.

A very delightful dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis at Sunnyside, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wingfield Brown, of Montana, on Friday last. Among those present were, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Goins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Horsley, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Patteson, Mr. Howell Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lewis and Misses Belle Irvine and Kate Jones, of Richmond.

Mr. Walker Steger is in Richmond under medical treatment.

Dr. Glover seems kept quite busy as there is a lot of sickness around.

Mr. E. K. Langhorn says he can give us Buckingham farmers some pointers on weed raising, as he has the best yet threshed—365 bushels. And from the looks of his corn fields there will be some shucks to fling.

It is good to hear the ring of horses' hoofs on our new bridge across Sycamore Creek. It is a dandy.

Rev W. P. Province will conduct revival services at Woodland Church commencing Sunday next. We agree with our Buckingham correspondent and so do our ladies.

The tobacco crop seems very poor, but corn is doing nicely on the river.

Mr. J. C. Woodson, of Lynchburg, spent several days at the home of Mrs. S. C. Gibson this week.

Mr. J. R. Cunningham tells us his corn and tobacco were very much cut up by hail on Friday last.

Mr. B. G. Boatwright visited the Hill City this week.

New Store.

Mrs. J. W. Gills, of Farmville and Mrs. C. T. Gills, of Appomattox, visited friends near here on Sunday and Monday last.

Spring Mills.

As it has been some time since this busy corner has sent in her notes, we will come again this week. Our quietude does not indicate inactivity, for this is not the case here by any means. Our people are always on the alert.

Though we hear the complaint quite frequently that labor is scarce, notwithstanding this the tobacco and corn crops are looking fairly well, and right many people have cut their oats and threshed their wheat, which are fairly good.

The singing school at Rocky Spring is largely attended, and much interest is manifested in it.

Miss Cora Land, of Indiana, is visiting relatives in this section.

Hebron.

We have always thought it best if possible to send cheerful letters both for the press and socially. Something that will be welcomed as a source of joy and cheer, and often have we, when our heart was sad, deferred writing a letter until our surroundings were brighter. But when death enters our midst we feel that there will be some one, whose eyes will fall upon our lines that will be interested in the one taken and who will be glad to offer the bereaved a word of sympathy, or a prayer in their behalf.

On the morning of July 10th, after a painful illness of two weeks, the spirit of dear little Louise, aged 7 years, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Wheeler and grandaughter of Mr. J. S. T. Bondurant, winged its way to Heaven; leaving a vacuum in the happy, heretofore unbroken family. On the 11th her little form was placed in the Hebron cemetery there to rest until the resurrection morn. The burial service conducted by pastor, Rev. J. C. Davidson, was very impressive. The little mound was decorated with flowers by the infant class of which she was a member. Parents, teachers and little comrades realize that she is safe in the arms of Jesus and in this thought are comforted, but oh it is sad to know we shall see her bright amiable face no more in the flesh.

Mr. Martin Webbe was buried in the same cemetery July 16th, the services being conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. C. Davidson. He had been a great sufferer for months and welcomed death as a relief, often repeating: "I do not fear death, I am ready to go." He leaves a widow and three children, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

The whooping cough has some what abated, but the scare is not over. The children are very tired of being quarantined and crave especially to get out to Sunday School.

Prof. George Davidson, recently of Oklahoma, is having quite a tedious case of typhoid fever at the Baptist pastorium. Hopes are entertained that he is now somewhat improved.

Mrs. Frank Stratton, who has been ill for so long, is rather better, but far from being well.

Mrs. Mary Steptoe, who has been staying with Mrs. Frank Stratton, has returned to her home in Bedford.

Mrs. Marshall Stratton is expecting relatives from Georgia to spend some time with her. They are now taking in the Exposition.

Miss Lot le Jennings has returned from an esteemed visit to Rockbridge and Botetourt. We gladly welcome her back.

Miss Fannie Pierce Taylor is visiting friends in Prince Edward. We miss her bright cheery face and are impatient for her return.

Mrs. McIver spent a delightful week in Lynchburg recently, visiting old friends, shopping, etc. When she returned she found a severe cyclone had passed through her farm trees and doing other damage. It also did considerable damage on Capt. Watt Carson's farm.

Mrs. Watt Carson and sister, Miss Alice Stratton, are visiting an aged aunt at Big Island.

Bethel P. M. Church has secured the services of Mr. Rice, a very attractive young man in appearance, for the summer. We hope to find him as attractive mentally and Sabbath school workers and as enterprising of members as he. We should however be careful of our disciples of the young people, but ever be ready to encourage with an encouraging word.

The H. W. M. Society met last Wednesday and much business was attended to. If the sisters only had more help we could carry out their good desires, what a power they might be in the Master's work, but it is difficult, with so many domestic duties to attend to church work as we would like.

Some of the colored ones who left here ver, thinking they would find a land of milk and honey "in the North, have returned and say they are satisfied. We hope the tide is turning. The farmers too are suffering much for help. We see some large fields of corn no thinned nor worked all for the want of labor.

Mr. Buck Carson has a large supply of nice clover hay, which looks like good farming.

Mr. J. B. Taylor killed a large moccasin snake in his children's play yard yesterday. It was quite a fright to the little folk.

My letter appears very dull Mr. Editor, but "she hath done what she could" in the way of news, so please excuse.
